SuperCalculatorX2000Thunder User Manual

Picture 1. – Window of a SuperCalculatorX2000Thunder

How to use

1. Select a number system. You can do it by clicking "up" or "down" on the bottom left box, increasing or decreasing the number you need the number system. You can also set the number of the number system by clicking the box and writing strait from your keyboard.

Attention! Changing the number system resets your input!

2. Calculate!

Available math operations:

" + " – mathematical combination; Keyboard key combination (shift) + ' = '.

" - " – mathematical subtraction; Keyboard key combination – ' - '.

" * " – mathematical multiplication; Keyboard key combination – ' * '.

" / " – mathematical division; Keyboard key combination – ' / '.

" ^ " – mathematical degree; No keyboard combination.

" √ " – mathematical square root; No keyboard combination.

" ! " – mathematical factorial; No keyboard combination.

" lg " – mathematical logarithm base 2; No keyboard combination.

" ln " – mathematical natural logarithm; No keyboard combination.

" = " – equal sign. Displays the result on the screen in the selected number system. Keyboard key combination – ' = '.

Other operational buttons:

" AC " – all clear. Resets input. Keyboard key combination – (Delete).

" ← " – backspace. Deletes 1 character. Keyboard key combination – (Backspace).